Hendricks County Community Foundation Welcomes New Partnership

Hendricks County Community Foundation is pleased to announce our latest Corporate Partner—North Salem State Bank. John Colvin, President, and Matt Howrey, CFO, recently presented a $10,000 check to Community Foundation Executive Director Janet Haley. [photo attached: Matt Howrey and Janet Haley]

John Colvin said, “It has been a privilege to support the Community Foundation for many years as the Bank believes strongly in the charitable work of the Foundation throughout Hendricks County. This is another way we give back to our community.”

“The Community Foundation has been fortunate to have wonderful support from businesses, corporations and individuals. With this support, many charitable projects have been completed making Hendricks County a great place to live and work,” said Janet Haley as she thanked Colvin and Howrey for the bank’s partnership.

The North Salem State Bank has been a locally owned community bank since 1923. It is committed to providing its customers and its community quality products and quality service through a dedicated and professional staff.

The Hendricks County Community Foundation has been working to improve the quality of life in our community since 1996. It manages a $7 million collection of funds that are created by individuals, families and organizations for charitable purposes.
